

VOOM – Pay Per Mile Motorcycle Insurance

VOOM is an innovative InsurTech company, creating next-gen insurance products for specialty vehicles.

We're here to provide flexible pay-per-mile solutions to low mileage operators throughout the United States.

Why you and your clients should choose VOOM

Instant savings

Your clients can save up to 60% with per-mile insurance backed by Markel American Insurance, rated "A" Excellent by A.M Best. Designed for low mileage riders and most types of motorcycles, scooters, and mopeds.

Flexibility and freedom

Fully flexible pricing based on actual usage. VOOM charges a low monthly fixed base rate, plus a few cents for each mile ridden. We offer limits up to $250K/ $500K and 12-month policy terms. No GPS or tracking is required by our product.

24/7 Digital support

Dedicated broker support channel that is committed to your success. Clients get fast and fully digital insurance, from quote to bind. Plus an expert support and claims management team that ensures fast, fair, and personal care.

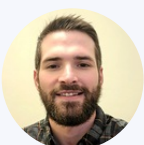

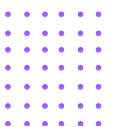

Marketing assistance

Our marketing team helps drive opportunities for your agency. We assist with the design and development of digital or physical assets, new marketing programs, and SEO management.

Value to your agency

Preferred commissions, customized marketing solutions, generous bonus structure, and book autonomy. VOOM is fully committed to the independent channel and will distribute future Pay-Per Mile products through our independent broker partners.
